SERVICEMAN'S CORNER: Migosh--what with all the fellas home on leave, no wonder the BYLINE isn't getting any Serviceman's mail for the column! Let's see now--besides RICK HATCH (AF); JEFF SHACKLEFORD (USN); ART HUTCHINSON (AF); GLENN STASER (ARMY); STANLEY TINDALL (ARMY); and DON WALTON (ARMY)---now we see BOB TANN (USMC) and BOB OWENS (AF) in civvies! But don't get us wrong--they're not OUT yet--just making the most of the leaves allowed them, by getting the good old "civvies" out of the mothballs! And we hear that the Navy's DON ROBERTSON and the Airforce's KEITH JOHNSON have gone back to their respective duties elsewhere--but we don't know where just yet. HOW ABOUT SOME MAIL, all you fellows---else how can we keep up with the SERVICEMAN'S CORNER???

G & R SERVICE "HARDTOP 77" FINISHES "IN THE MONEY": G & R Service, of #1 San Bruno Avenue, Brisbane, have been sponsoring #77, and drivers ART and RAY CEREMBLE, and now have another "win" to boast about. Last Tuesday night, old "77" ran "in the money" at the Oakland Stadium, when driver Art Ceremeli jockeyed into 3rd position in his "heat" race, qualifying the car for the Semi-Main race. Out of 20 starters, the Semi-Main was finished with only 8 entrants, of which our #77 came in fifth. There were 6 re-starts and 7 crackups in this race (with #77 involved in 5 of the crackups). #77 is jointly owned by the G & R SERVICE (Warren Reece & Galen Gilbrech) and driver Art Cerimelo. The next race for the fast and unusual #77 is scheduled for next Tuesday night at the Oakland Stadium. For an evening of fast and furious excitement, the HARDTOP races can't be beat! So, how about more local support? Contact G & R SERVICE for times and places of future races.

OPINIONS ON BANK IN BRISBANE SLOW IN COMING IN: Two weeks ago the BYLINE ran a paragraph asking local public opinion on having a bank situated right here in Brisbane, even without incorporation--and so far, we have received several phone calls, but only one written opinion. We can't show "phone calls" to interested parties--but we can show written opinions. All it would take would be a penny postal--or come in to the Byline office, and write your opinion down. Here is what we want to know: "DO YOU, AS A CITIZEN OF BRISBANE, WANT A BANK HERE?" --and---/WOULD YOU TRANSFER YOUR BANK ACCOUNT TO THE LOCAL BANK IF WE COULD GET ONE HERE?" Well, how about it? Remember--you MERCHANTS should be interested as much, if not more, than the buying public here.

LOCAL MAN RECEIVES APPOINTMENT: One of Brisbane's "Servicemen", 1st Lt. ROY LORENTZ, has just received orders to photograph National Cemeteries for future issues of the National Geographic Magazine. Lt. Lorentz is the son-in-law of Mrs. K.D. Wooden, of 37 San Francisco Ave., Brisbane, and is now stationed with the Airforce at Shaw Airforce Base, at Sumter, South Carolina.

CADY NAMED TOP ATHLETE AT JEFF HIGH: Norman Cady, champion senior swimmer, has been named winner of Jefferson High School's annual "outstanding athlete" award. Cady, who participated also in football and basketball, earned 10 block letters at Jeff and held 10 school swimming records. He plans to attend San Jose State College in the fall. Other awards went to senior Ray Tschirgi, outstanding football player; senior Don Wilson, outstanding basketballer; senior Byran McMahon, outstanding baseballer; senior Mac Douglas, outstanding trackman, and sophomore John Geerstsens, outstanding golfer. Besides Cady, Tschirgi, Wilson, McMahon and Douglas, other Jeff athletes who closed out their prep careers with graduation this month are: Dick Bergstresser, basketball & track; Angelo Caloira, basketball; Phil Goffman, basketball; Bob DeBarnardi, track; Don Easterby, swimming; Rod Easterby, swimming; Don Espinoza, football & swimming; Isi Galente, football & baseball; Bill George, football; Harold Hazen, football; Scott Hickman, swimming; Larry Hutchinson, basketball; Lloyd Isdahl, swimming; Rich Trantham, basketball, baseball and student body president; Darrell Smith, basketball; Mal Ziegler, football; and Ronnie Peden, track.

FRIDAY JUNE 27, 1952

SUMMER SCHOOL AT JEFFERSON HIGH: Summer school opened at Jefferson Union High School on Monday, June 16th, with about one hundred students in attendance. This is the first summer session for the local school and was started in response to the request of many students. Formerly residents of this district attended San Francisco or San Mateo summer sessions. These districts, however, could no longer accept out-of-district students. Mr. John Mongan is serving as director of the summer school and is teaching American History. Other members of the faculty include: Miss Dorothy Tully, English; Mrs. Marion Kramer, English and Remedial Reading; Mr. George Hinkle, Typing and General Math; and Mr. Truman Pfeffer, Woodwork. ---The Summer Session is conducted from 8:00 a.m. until noon, and will be open from June 16 until Aug. 8th.

SEABEES STEP UP TRAINING: Seabeas (construction battalions of the U.S. Navy) are stepping up their training periods. Rear Admiral B.J. RODGERS, commandant of the 12th Naval District, announced recently that starting July 1st, all organized Seabee Reserve companies in the district will start drilling on a regular 48 drills a year basis. Formerly the companies held drills only 24 times a year. Members of the Seabee Reserve represent 60 building trades.

JEFF HI GRADS HAVE ASSORTED PLANS FOR THE FUTURE: The one hundred and fifteen students who graduated from Jefferson Union High School on June 12th, have a wide assortment of plans. A summary of those plans was prepared by the administrative office of the school and shows the following: 44 plan to go on to institutions of higher learning, including 7 to U. of California; 13 to San Mateo Junior College; 4 to San Francisco City College; 10 to San Francisco State College; 1 to Stanford University (our own Judy Woodard!); 1 to Pomona College; and 8 to miscellaneous other schools. Twentysix boys and forty girls plan to work and practically all have jobs, which they obtained with the school help or on their own initiative. Three boys plan to enter the military service immediately and one girl admitted an early marriage is her future. A number of girls are going on to excellent secretarial jobs; one plans to be a nurse; and two have scholarships at a beauty culture school. One graduate is moving to Guam, and another to Ohio; thus scattering the class widely. The number entering the University of California is unusually large. School officials hope they will maintain Jefferson's excellent record at the University.

REPORT FROM THE RED CROSS: Elizabeth Mack, of Hillsborough, will bring national recognition to the S.M.Co. Chapter, American Red Cross, when she appears as one of two lay speakers chosen from the entire U.S. to address one of the meetings at the annual convention of the American Nat'l Red Cross in Cleveland, June 23-25. Miss Mack is local Vice Chairman in charge of all volunteer workers, and in this capacity has been named by the Board of Directors to appear as official delegate from the S.M.Co. chapter. It is because of the forward steps taken in the Voluntary service field by the local chapter under the leadership of Miss Mack, that she has been asked to speak on plans for implementing the Board's action on volunteer service participation. Her discussion will include suggestions for a more systematic use of volunteers and suitable recognition of their efforts, and insignia to be devised for all volunteers, not only Service Groups, as has been customary in the past. She will explain steps taken by the local chapter in recruiting volunteers, their training and placement and the Annual Awards Tea planned to give proper recognition to their generous donation of time and effort. "Red Cross work always has been and always will be carried on largely by volunteers" Miss Mack points out, "paid staff being used only to coordinate the efforts of this vast group of faithful workers. In the rush of modern life, we are apt to take these people for granted. It is to combat this dangerous attitude that we are striving to integrate our entire volunteer program and accord suitable recognition to those who take part in it." Miss Mack will leave for the convention on June 22nd.

LION'S CLUB INSTALLATION: The Brisbane Lion's Club installation of officers took place last Wed. night at the 23 Club, with Ted Dagler succeeding Cliff Mozzetti as president. Installing officer was Joe Torrieto of Redwood City, past District Governor. Other new officers include Fred Laing as secretary and treasurer; Crry Facchini as 1st vice-president; Earl Woodard as 2nd vice-president; Rich ard Siess as 3rd vice-president; G. Bernadini as Lion Tamer; and Warren Reece as Tail Twister.

The local Lion's club is sponsoring it's third annual Western Day celebration here to be held on the 25th, 26th, & 27th of July--and associated with the club this year are; American Legion Post #473 and Auxiliary; Walter A. Blair Post VFW and Auxiliary; The Brisbane Firemen's Social Club; the Brisbane Rod & Gun Club; with all five organizations having "Queens" entered in the contest.

The Brisbane Lions received the highest rating of all clubs in this district for the first half of the calendar year for the work done in their community. We are justly proud of this rating. The new president Ted Dagler, has something to shoot at!

Also installed Wed. night were Jim Williams and Gene Firth as new Directors.

Standings in the Queen contest are as follows; Judy Woodard (Lions) 590,000---Carol Chapman (VFW) 550,000; Joanne Tucker (Firemen) 200,000; Barbara Kyles (Amer. Leg.) 270,000 and Joan Stewart (Gun Club) 175,000.

"UNCLE SAM" IS GONE!! Mr. Samuel Trout, better known to the patrons of the Fountain of Youth as "Uncle Sam", passed away in his sleep at the San Mateo Community Hospital on Friday night, June 20th, after a heart attack suffered on Tuesday of last week. His death came as a shock to his many friends, and particularly to his neice, Mrs. Vera Scott, owner of the eating establishment. Mrs. Scott and her sister, Mrs. Daisy Martin, of Oakland, did not know of Uncle Sam's existence until a few months ago when he was discovered as their long-lost uncle after a series of investigations by letter. Mr. Trout has relatives in Idaho; a grandson, Mr. Leo Trout, in Fort Ord; and relatives in Calverburg, Ill., where he was buried Wed. beside his late wife.

CRACKDOWN ON SHOP-LIFTING: San Mateo retail businessmen are determined to crack down on the shop lifting, according to Geoffrey Bromfield, chairman of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce's special committee on store theft prevention. The committee met with police chief Martin McDonnell and discussed the problem in great detail yesterday. A program aimed at education of store personnel in methods of detection and apprehension of potential shoplifters is being developed. Top management is giving thought to improving its system of checking of employees parcels within the store, and it is planned to engage outstanding detective services to work with the stores in San Mateo. Chief McDonnell has pledged his wholehearted support to the program and vigorous prosecution of apprehended shop lifters. It was the general feeling of the committee that one of the reasons why this wave of shoplifting has taken on impetus in San Mateo is because of the very friendly attitude of the store owners and employees to the public at large. It was pointed out that San Mateo will continue to be a friendly city in which to do business but that they are definitely going to be on the look out for persons of miscreant habits. There is a general feeling that a great amount of thefts have been accomplished by people from outside of the city who have felt that San Mateo was a soft touch. "As soon as a detective service is engaged and store personnel alerted of methods of detecting shop lifters," chairman Bromfield stated, "many arrests will probably be made." He continued, "San Mateo will continue to be a friendly city in which to shop but not a soft touch!"

"ON-THE-SPOT" BRISBANE ZONE HEARINGS SET: (Redwood City, June 19):

On the spot hearings will be held by the San Mateo County Planning Commission to determine whether the entire community of Brisbane should be rezoned to a duplex area. The meetings, to be held in Brisbane, were agreed upon late yesterday by the planning commissioners when the rezoning proposal came before it. Leslie Nichols, chairman of the planning commission, explained that action such as requested by a petition of citizens would have such drastic effect on the 6000 (?) residents of Brisbane that it was felt best to hold one or more meetings to which the entire community would be invited. The petition seeks to rezone every lot, already not multiple-family or commercial, to a two-family zone pattern. Nichols explained that if the rezoning is effected, a two-unit dwelling could be built on every 25-foot lot in the community. The commission asked Brisbane representatives to decide on the date for the first public hearing in Brisbane, and also to be prepared at that time to answer a number of questions the commission will ask. The questions will be in connection with the adequacy of various municipal facilities for a potential population of double Brisbane's present residents. The problems posed will be those in connection with sewage disposal, fire protection, transportation, policing, schools, streets, parking and water supply. The meetings are to be held in Brisbane at a time to be decided later.--(from the ADVANCE of June 19)

LETTER FROM McKENNA: Many of the 12,000 voters who chose me in the June primary have asked my choice of the two men running for Congress in November. While there are some voters who blindly follow a political label, voting Republican or Democrat, I believe there are many in California who prefer to vote for the better man. Rather than give an immediate and perfunctory endorsement to the choice of my party therefore, I have studied the record and public statements of both candidates.

It is my considered opinion that of the two men, the one who has a wider background of service to San Mateo County, a broader knowledge of our country's history and a deeper understanding of the needs of the many different racial and religious groups who make up America, is Harold Taggart, dean of the San Mateo Junior College. Regardless of their presidential choice, I recommend to all my friends who voted for me in June, to choose Taggart, in November!--signed, JOHN M. McKENNA
